

MARRUBIUM PLUMOSUM (ASTERACEAE), A NEW SPECIES TO THE FLORA OF THE NAKHICHEVAN AUTONOMOUS REPUBLIC

N. A. Novruzi^{a,#} and N. K. Abbasov^{b,##}

^a *Nakhichevan Teachers' Institute
Heydar Aliyev Ave., 1, Nakhichevan, AZ 7000, Azerbaijan*

^b *Institute of Biological Resources of the Nakhichevan Section of the National Academy of Sciences of Azerbaijan
Babek Str., 10, Nakhichevan, AZ 7000, Azerbaijan*

[#]e-mail: nnurlana91@mail.ru

^{##}e-mail: namiq-araz@mail.ru

DOI: 10.31857/S0006813621120036

Marrubium plumosum C.A. Mey. is a new species to the flora of the Nakhichevan Autonomous Republic (Azerbaijan) found in montane steppe communities in the vicinities of Chalkhangala village, namely on the Garagush Plateau, Kengerlinsky district, and in the vicinities of Nasrivaz village, on the Gamigaya Plateau at the foot of the Garangush Mt., Ordubad district.

Keywords: Nakhichevan Autonomous Republic, Marrubium plumosum, new record

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The authors are very grateful to G.A. Lazkov for his help with identifying the species.

REFERENCES

Askerov A.M. 2011. Konspekt flori Azerbaidzhana (dopolneniya I izmeneniya 1961–2009) [Synopsis of the flora of Azerbaijan (additions and changes 1961–2009)]. Baku. 202 p. (In Azerb.).

Grossheim A.A. 1967. Flora Kavkaza. [Flora of Caucasus]. Vol. 7. Moscow; Leningrad. P. 322–325 (In Russ.).

Isaev Ya.M. 1957. Marrubium L. – Shandra. (Labiatae). – In: Flora of Azerbaijan. Vol. 7. Baku. P. 245–252 (In Russ.).